- This is a detailed cadastral map of a town, likely in France, showing property boundaries, buildings, and various colored zones. The map includes labels for numerous locations such as 'LES COURTILS', 'LE BAS DES DAMIERIES', 'LA CROIX SAINT-JEAN', 'LE BUI-EST', and 'LE PARCLET'. It also indicates neighboring communes: 'COMMUNE DE SAINT-BRICE' to the east and 'COMMUNE DE POIGNY' to the south. The map features a network of roads, a river or stream, and several large green areas, likely parks or forests. A prominent pink line runs diagonally across the central part of the map, possibly indicating a specific boundary or route.
